ASSEMBLY REPORT

DATE: 27.01.2019

Deputy Director of Academic Department (Mr. Soo Yeong Shen)

- Today's topic for sharing is "Please study hard".
- Students that are regularly inattentive in class, sleep during lessons and defy the teacher, contemplate about what you have learned when you graduate and leave the school. How will you be facing the challenges of society having gained nothing?
- In this era where technology is rapidly improving, what can we gain from studying?
- Studying can push your limits and promote growth.
- Studying can provide more options for your future.
- There are many regrets in life, please don't let 'not studying' become one of your regrets. It is unavoidable that we will have good times and bad times in life, only through continuous learning can we acquire the good times.

Vice Principal and Head of Academic Department (Mdm. Ling Soon Ching)

- Students that are interested in participating in SASMO or Chen Jingrun's Cup Mathematics Competition may obtain more information from Mr. Leow at the General Affairs office.

Principal Leong Ping Chow

- It will be difficult for teenagers to adapt to society if they neglect their studies.
- Students tend to ignore or turn a deaf ear to the advice of their elders. In a society where the fittest survive, the strong will remain and the weak will be eliminated. Therefore, students should listen and pay attention to the teachings of their elders so that they may be better prepared to face the real world.
